

I am paying for my subscription to XM Radio. This company has handled revenues very responsibly, and has limited the number of commercials better than television and broadcast radio. Leave them alone. Reject the NAB's petition 04-160.